THE UNIVERSITY OF ALBERTA STAFF BULLETIN

EDMONTON 7, ALBERTA

JUNE 11, 1970

The stately old houses on University Circle (southwest of the Faculty Club) have been home to a great many faculty members since the first campus buildings went up. Several of the houses were built of materials left over from the old residences. More recently, they have housed stray parts of such departments as Music and Mathematics that have outgrown their regular space. This summer several of these old houses will be torn down to make way for the second car park.

APPOINTMENT

JAMES E. GALLAGHER, Associate Professor of Industrial and Vocational Education, has been appointed Chairman of that department effective July 1. He succeeds HENRY R. ZIEL, who resigned as Chairman but will remain as Professor of Industrial and Vocational Education.

Professor Gallagher was born in Lamont, Alberta, and educated in Edmonton schools. He graduated from The University of Alberta in 1956 with the degree of Bachelor of Education in Industrial Arts, a Senior Specialist Certificate in Woodworking, and a variety of athletic and service awards. He received his Master of Education degree from this University in 1964 and at present is completing his Doctor of Education at the University of Illinois. He also holds a Journeyman Certificate in Carpentry and Joinery.

Professor Gallagher joined the Department of Industrial and Vocational Education in 1963 after having taught four years in Yellowknife. He has extensive industrial experience related to his specialization and has served as a consultant to both industrial and educational organizations.

Mr. Gallagher

ACADEMIC SALARY SCALE SET

The 1970-71 salary scale for academic staff at The University of Alberta was established last week by the Board of Governors. An across the board increase of 6 per cent for all academic staff plus improvements in fringe benefits amounting to another 2 per cent was approved. These are in addition to merit increments which have been approved for continuing staff in accordance with existing procedures.

Included in the improved fringe benefits are contributions to both group life insurance and medicare and a grant toward professional expenses. This grant will allow each academic staff member to claim up to $100 per year for such professional expenses as books, travel, and memberships in professional associations.

RICHARD EATON SINGERS TO TOUR ENGLAND

The Richard Eaton Singers are leaving July 5 for England to participate in several competitive and non-competitive musical festivals. Conducting will be Sandra Munn, Assistant Professor of Music.

The Singers are campaigning for donations to help several young singers accompany the group, and to keep the expenses for each individual down. Any donations would be welcome, and cheques may be made payable to the "Richard Eaton Singers Tour Fund," care of MRS. ANN FAREBROTHER, 204-12407 Lansdowne Drive.

PEOPLE

■ EDWIN N. TURNER, Sessional Lecturer in the Department of English, has been awarded first prize for the three-act category of the Alberta Annual Playwriting Contest held by the Cultural Affairs Division of the Province of Alberta. The prize money of $500 was awarded to Mr. Turner for his new play called The Reluctant Prophet from Solomon's Pools.

■ SHIRLEY STINSON, Associate Professor of Nursing, was panel participant on "New Roles in Public Health Nursing" at the Canadian Public Health Association meeting in Winnipeg. Dr. Stinson also gave a paper on her dissertation, "Deprofessionalization in Nursing?" at the Canadian Council of University Schools of Nursing, held in Winnipeg, June 1 to 3.

■ HILDRED RAWSON, presently on the staff of the Ontario Institute for Studies in Education, was awarded the Outstanding Dissertation of the Year Award by the International Reading Association at the annual convention of the International Reading Association which was held at Anaheim, California in May. Dr. Rawson received her PhD in elementary education from this University. MARION JENKINSON, Professor of Elementary Education, supervised Dr. Rawson's thesis.

VISITORS

■ JAMES A. MARSHALL of Northwestern University, Evanston, Illinois, was guest speaker in the Department of Chemistry on Thursday, June 11.

■ R. S. RODGER of the University of Dalhousie Department of Psychology presented a seminar to the Center for Advanced Study in Theoretical Psychology on June 1. The topic of discussion and lecture was "Factor Analysis, Experimental Psychology and Behavior Genetics."
